1951

L. Colyer. —

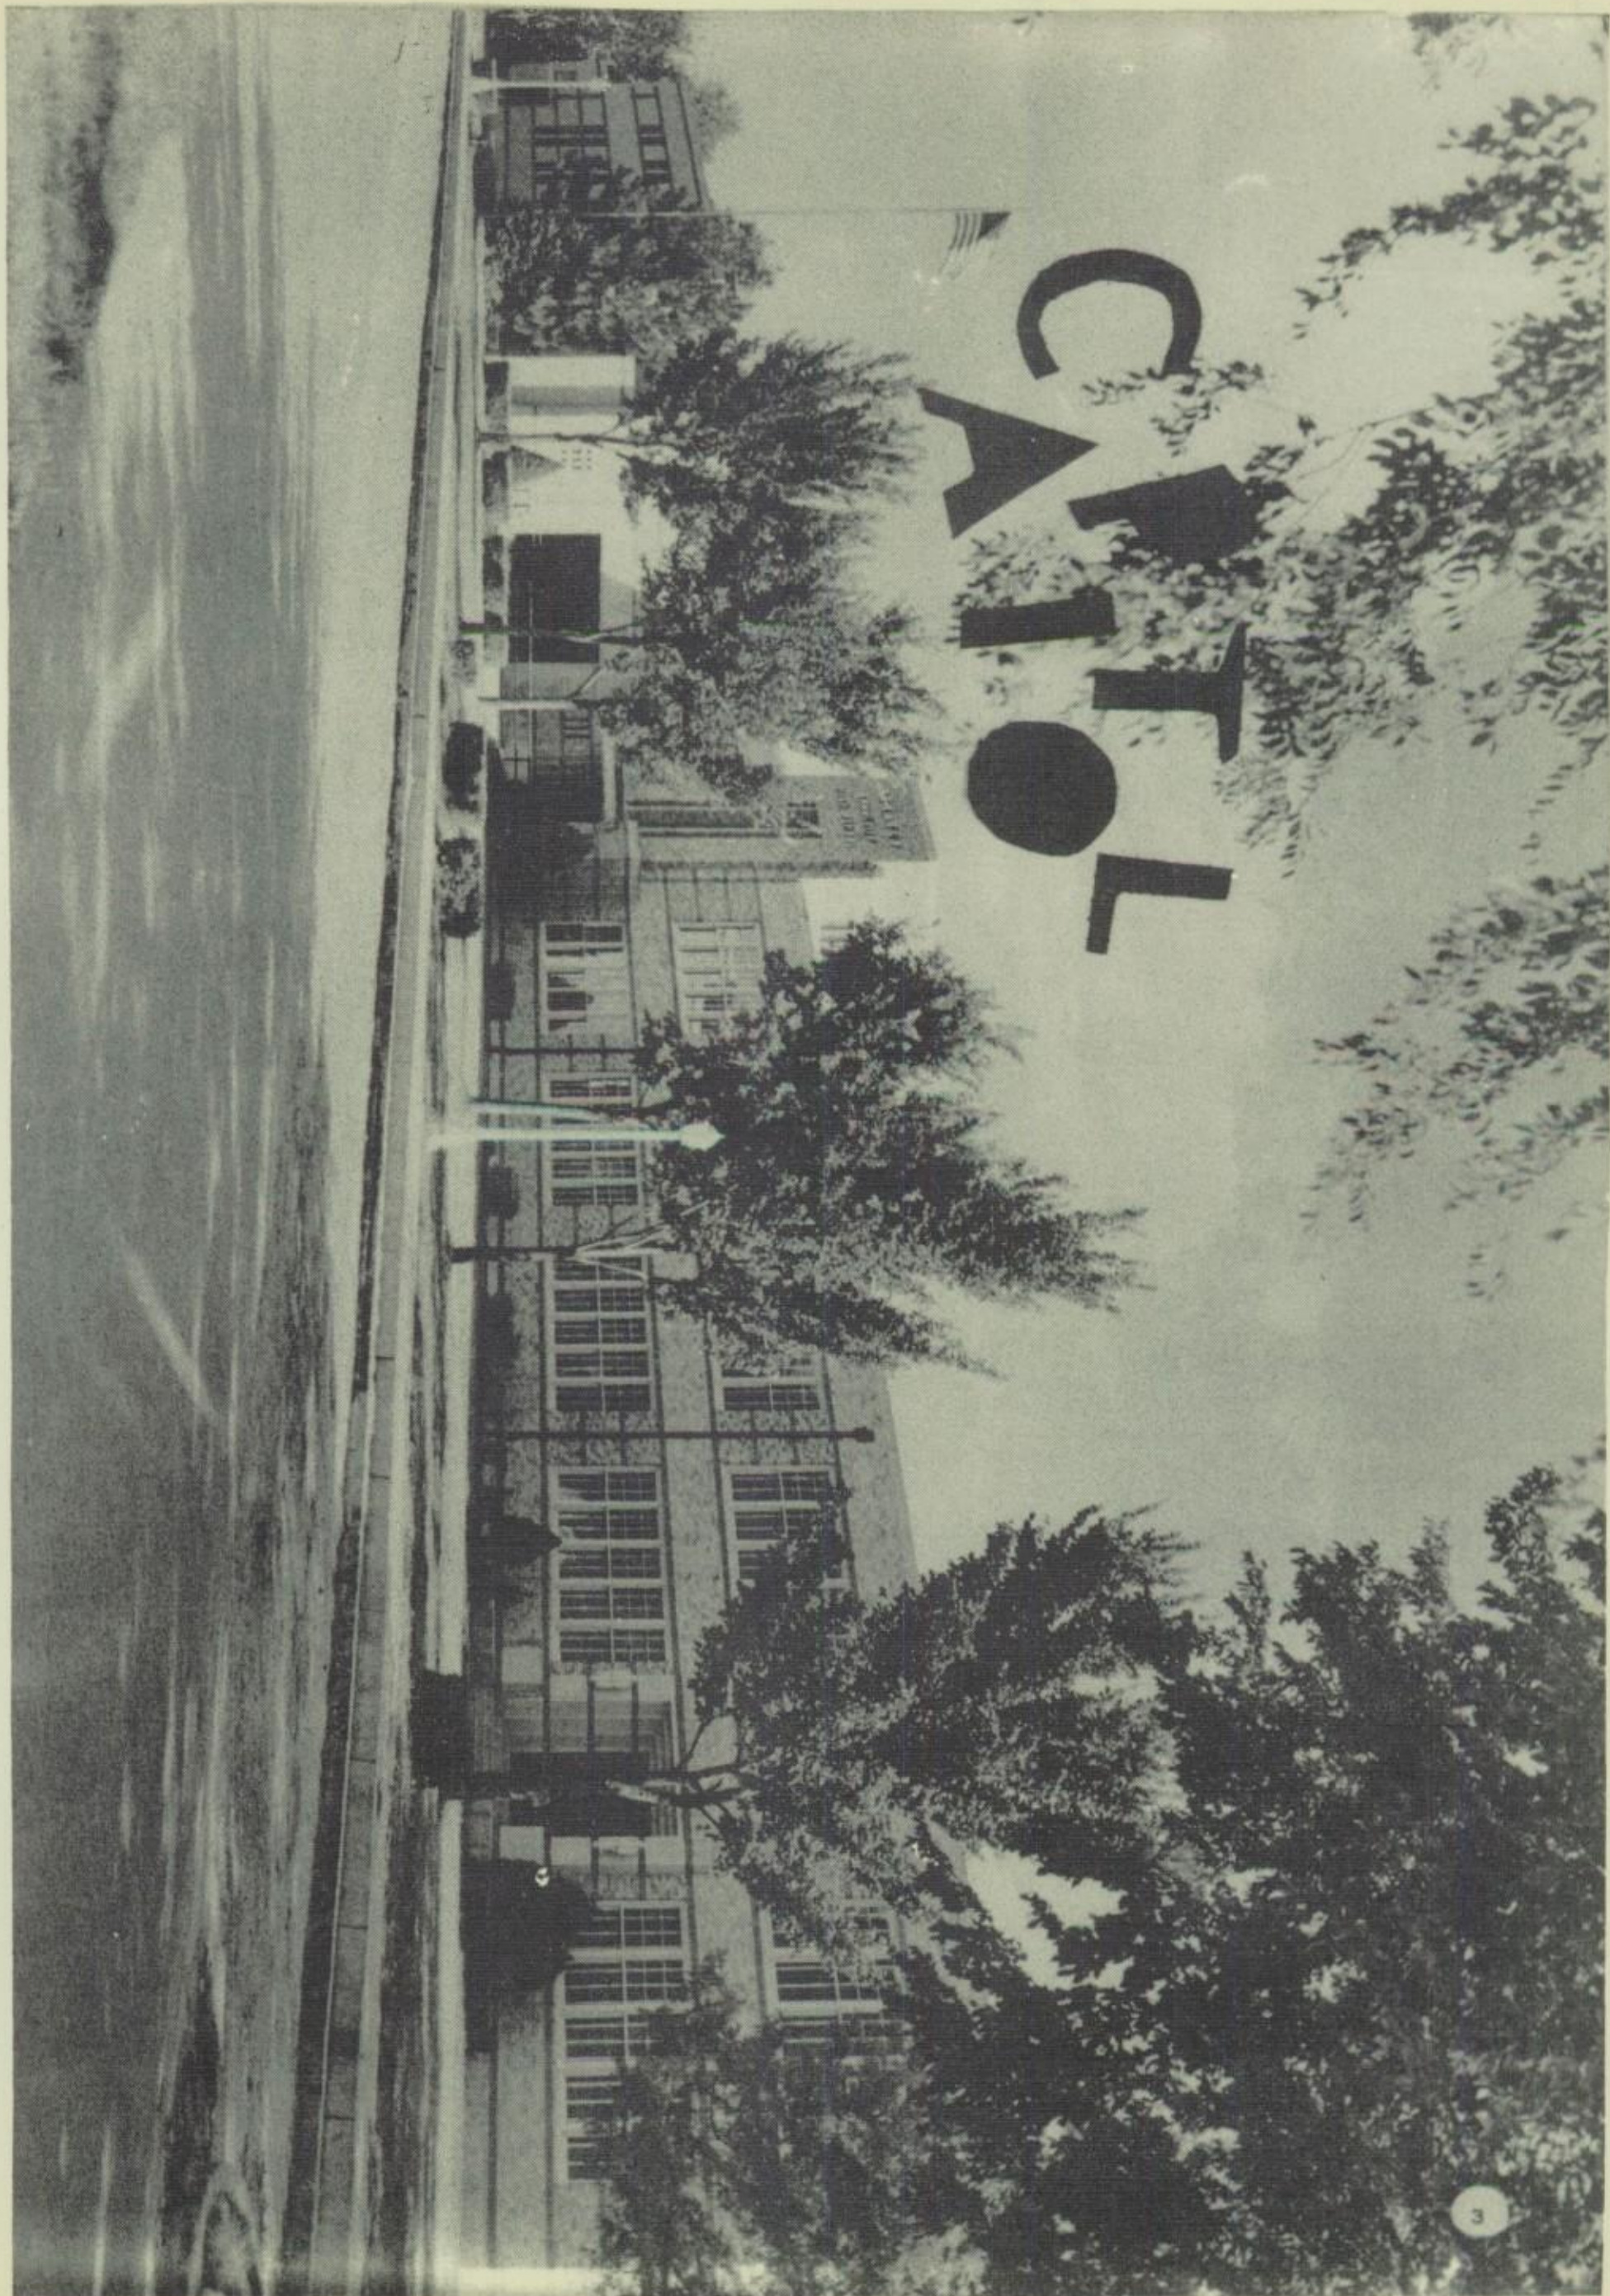

STAND FOR FREEDOM

Preface

In order to give the students of D. C. H. S. a pictorial memoir of the 1950-'51 school year, and to give the community a look into our activities, the journalism class presents our year book, "United We Stand."

Our title designates the necessity for union within the school, but it cannot stop here, for the school, community, nation and world must be in perfect harmony if each is to attain its highest goal.

A black and white photograph showing two young women sitting at a table, focused on a project. The woman on the left is wearing a dark, long-sleeved top and is leaning over the table, using a pen to write on a piece of paper. The woman on the right is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved top and a dark plaid skirt. She is also leaning over the table, looking down at the work. On the table, there are several sheets of paper, some of which appear to be cut into star or geometric shapes. A small bottle, possibly ink or glue, is also visible on the table. The background is slightly out of focus, showing what might be a doorway or a wall. The overall tone of the image is one of diligent work and collaboration.

You probably thought that the "allow us CleanUp" was known.

Thursday evening, November 19th, the Y-Teen girls entertained their dads at a Father and Daughter banquet which was held at the Masonic Temple banquet room.
